Application to visit Australia for tourism or other recreational activities

Form

48R

Please read the following information carefully BEFORE you complete your application.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are outside Australia to apply for a Tourist visa to visit Australia for tourism or other recreational activities (holiday, sightseeing, social or recreational reasons, to visit relatives or friends, or other short-term non-work purposes including study).

- If you want to apply for a Sponsored Family Visitor visa, you will need to complete form 48S, and your sponsor will need to complete form 1149.
- If you intend visiting Australia for medical treatment you should use form 48ME.
- If you intend to study in Australia for more than 3 months you should apply for a student visa. Please contact the nearest Australian overseas mission for information on student visa applications, including the correct application form.
- If you intend visiting Australia for a short business trip (including attending a conference) you should use form 456.

You must complete all questions in all sections. Failure to answer any question completely and accurately may result in the application being refused, or the visa may be cancelled at a later date.

Type of visas

A visa must be obtained BEFORE travelling to Australia. A visitor visa granted following the processing of this application may be in the form of a label, placed in your passport. A visa may be for a single entry or for multiple entries. Following an assessment of your application by a visa officer, a decision will be made on whether or not to grant a visa and for what period of time. The type of visa, length of stay, conditions and a number of entries will be indicated on your visa label or in the letter the Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs (the department) will send you if you are granted the visa.

You can apply for the following type of visa:

Tourist visa, class TR, subclass 676

This visa can be applied for from outside Australia (offshore) or in Australia.

Visa validity

A Tourist visa allows a stay of up to 12 months. A stay beyond 12 months is ONLY granted where 'exceptional' circumstances exist.

It may be granted for a single entry or multiple entries within a specified period.

Generally a Tourist visa (subclass 676) allows a stay in Australia of 3 months or 6 months and is valid for multiple visits within 12 months from the date of grant.

It should be noted, however, under Australia's migration regulations, decision-makers may grant a Tourist visa permitting the visa holder to travel to and to remain in Australia for a specified period that they see as appropriate. In some circumstances the stay period granted may be less than the stay period requested by the applicant.

For more detailed information check the Visiting Australia website at www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm

Ways to apply

There are 2 ways to apply for a Tourist visa:

- apply electronically over the internet; or
- apply on a paper application form.

To apply for a Tourist visa from outside Australia:

- Applications for a Tourist visa may be made via the internet using registered travel agents or airline services or by applicants applying directly on the internet. To apply through the internet, you must hold an eligible passport. A list of eligible passports for this service is available from the department's website at www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm
- Applications for a Tourist visa may also be made in the conventional way (on a paper application form) at an Australian Embassy, High Commission or Consulate (use this form).

To apply for a Tourist visa in Australia:

- Applications for a further stay in Australia as a Tourist may be made via the internet or at an office of the department or by mail depending on the length of the total stay period.
- An application for a total stay of up to 6 months from the date the applicant last entered Australia on an Electronic Travel Authority (Visitor) or Tourist visa (subclass 676) can be made over the internet. Further information is available on the department's website at www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm
- An application for a total stay of more than 6 months can be made at an office of the department (use form 601).

For more details on visa lodgement options check the Visiting Australia website at www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/visitors.htm

Application Charge

There is a non-refundable application charge which must accompany each application.

- The application cannot be processed until this charge has been received.
- The fee will not be refunded if a visa is not granted.

To check the visa application charge, see form 990i Charges available from the forms section of the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm or check with the nearest office of the department.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment they can accept.

Who can you include in this application?

Only one passport-holder can apply on one form. You can include in your application any children on your passport who will be travelling with you. If another adult is included in your passport they should complete a separate application form.

Conditions for a tourist visa to Australia

Visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions listed below while in Australia. If you are unwilling or unable to abide by these conditions you should not apply for a visa. If you do not abide by these conditions, your visa may be cancelled or you may be subject to other penalties. If you have any questions or concerns about the conditions, you should ask for more information from an Australian overseas mission.

On return of your passport, carefully check the details and conditions on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa.

CONDITIONS

8101 – You must NOT work while in Australia.

8201 – You must NOT study for more than 3 months while in Australia.

8205 – Where this condition applies, and you intend to study for longer than 4 weeks, you are required to pass a chest x-ray examination before you are able to commence study.

8503 – No Further Stay.

Following an assessment of your application, a visa officer may decide to apply the 8503 condition on your visa. The 8503 (or No Further Stay) condition means that the holder of the visa on which the condition has been imposed will not, after entering Australia, be entitled to be granted any other visa¹, while the holder remains in Australia.

The effect of this visa condition is that it will not be possible for you to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay of your visa. It is particularly important, if your visit to Australia is to attend a specific event, that you organise your travel so that you can attend these events within your authorised period of stay as you will not be able to extend your period of stay in Australia.

If the 8503 condition is imposed on your visa, it will be indicated on the visa label or the letter advising you of the grant of your visa, with the words 8503 – NO FURTHER STAY.

There may be other conditions depending on the purpose of your visit.

¹ Except in extremely limited circumstances which are outside your control, or to engage Australia's protection obligation under the 1951 UN convention relating to the status of refugees.

How to apply

- Applicants from certain nationalities may be eligible to apply for a Tourist visa on the internet. Further information about this service is available on the department's website at www.immi.gov.au/e_visa/
- To apply in person or by mail you will need to complete a paper application form. Note: False or misleading information may lead to refusal or cancellation of your visa, or penalties while in Australia. The completed application form can be lodged at your nearest Australian overseas mission.
- You may arrange for another person to help you complete the application form, but you must sign it. If you have been assisted in completing the application form, you should only sign the declaration(s) if the information in it is true and correct.
- Lodge your application form, the application charge, your passport and any attachments at the nearest Australian overseas mission. Your application may be lodged personally, by your representative or sent by mail.
Note: Some Australian government offices overseas do not accept visa applications at their offices. Information about special arrangements for lodgement of visa applications at specific Australian government offices overseas may be found on the department's website at www.immi.gov.au/contacts/overseas/ or by contacting your nearest Australian government office.
- Please follow any directions given by the visa processing officer as to medical or x-ray examinations that may be required.
- On the return of your passport, carefully check the details and conditions on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa. If you have any concerns or questions about the requirements or limitations, you should contact the office that granted the visa before travelling to Australia. You should not assume that any changes to your immigration status can be made after your arrival in Australia.

Residential address

You must provide the address where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address in this application will result in your application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.

Health insurance

It is recommended that you take out health insurance for you and your family for the period of stay in Australia. You will not be covered by Australia's national health scheme, unless you are covered by a reciprocal health care agreement.

Vaccinations

If it is your intention to enrol your child in an Australian school or childcare centre (creche or preschool) during your visit to Australia, you are strongly encouraged to carry certification of your child's vaccination status.

Vaccination is recommended against polio, tetanus, measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), Haemophilus influenzae hypo (Hib), and Hepatitis B.

Certification may be sought at time of enrolment.

Note: Vaccination against rubella is also recommended for women of child bearing age.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Commonwealth Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on the form to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Authorisation of a person to only receive written communications

You may authorise another person to only receive all written communications about your application with the department. That person will be known as your authorised recipient. To do this, you will need to complete the sections of the form with the heading Options for receiving written communications and Authorised recipient details. The authorised recipient will need to sign at the section Authorised recipient consent. You can only appoint one authorised recipient at any time. The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient.

The department is required under section 494D of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act) to send your authorised recipient any written communications relating to your application that would otherwise have been sent to you. The department will only send your authorised recipient information which you are entitled to receive. For example, if you are a visa applicant and have a sponsor, your authorised recipient will not receive personal information about your sponsor, unless your sponsor also appointed the same authorised recipient.

If you decide to change your nominated authorised recipient, after you have lodged this application, you must promptly advise the department in writing. You may use form 1231 Appointment of authorised recipient for this purpose OR form 922 Notification of address or change of address for Business Skills visa holders, if you are a Business visa holder.

Authorisation of a migration agent to act on your behalf

If you have a migration agent acting on your behalf in relation to your application, you need to complete the sections of the form with the heading Options for receiving written communications and Agent details. The migration agent will need to sign at the section Agent consent.

Appointing a migration agent to act on your behalf includes authorising the department to:

- discuss your application with the agent and seek further information from them; and
- send your agent written communications about your application that would otherwise have been sent to you.

Note: Your migration agent will be your authorised recipient for written communication under section 494D of the Act and you will be taken to have received any documents sent to them.

If you change your migration agent or end his/her appointment, after you have lodged this application, you must promptly advise the department in writing, preferably by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent, which is available on the department's website or from your migration agent.

The department will communicate with your agent about your application, including your personal information such as health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. If your agent authorises it, this communication may take place by e-mail or fax.

The department will only send your agent information which you are entitled to receive. For example, if you are a visa applicant and have a sponsor, your agent will not receive personal information about your sponsor, unless your sponsor has also appointed the same agent.

In some situations, the department's staff will need to speak with you directly, rather than with your migration agent – for example, if you are applying for a visa the department may interview you. In some situations, the department's staff will also send documents to you directly (eg. passport) instead of to your agent, but it will inform your agent that it has done so.

If you have appointed a migration agent to act for you, you are still responsible for the accuracy of information and supporting documentation that you give to your agent so that your agent can provide it to the department.

When you provide the details of your migration agent, please make sure you include their 7-digit:

- migration agent registration number (if they are a registered migration agent); or
- offshore agent ID number (if they have been allocated one by the department).

Note: Agents who operate overseas do not need to be registered. They may however, have been allocated an ID number by the department.

Using a migration agent

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act in the lawful best interests of their clients and act professionally.

A list of registered migration agents is available from the Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) website www.themara.com.au

You can contact the MARA at:

E-mail: themara@themara.com.au

PO Box Q1551
QVB NSW 1230
AUSTRALIA

Telephone: 61 2 9299 5446

Fax: 61 2 9299 8448

The MARA investigates complaints against registered agents and may take disciplinary action against them. If you have a concern about a registered agent, you should contact the MARA. A copy of the complaint form is available from the MARA website.

Restrictions on giving immigration assistance

In Australia, anyone (including a lawyer) who uses knowledge of migration procedure to offer immigration assistance to a visa or cancellation review applicant, sponsor or nominator, must be registered, unless exempted from registration requirements by law. There are serious criminal penalties under Part 3 of the Act for breaching the law – including possible imprisonment if the unregistered person asks for, or receives, a fee or reward for their services.

Using an agent exempted from registration

Certain people, such as officials, parliamentarians, diplomats, close family members (ie. only your spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister), sponsors and nominators, are able to provide you with immigration assistance as long as they do not ask or receive a fee or reward. If you wish to appoint an 'exempted agent', you must complete form 956 Appointment of a migration agent and attach it to this application form.

Applications for multiple visas

If you are a dependant applicant (eg. the spouse of a primary applicant) and you wish to appoint a different migration agent to the primary applicant, you must fill out a separate form 956 Appointment of a migration agent, or advise the department in writing. Otherwise, the agent appointed by the principal applicant will have the authority to act for all persons included in the application.

Notification of giving immigration assistance

Under section 312A of the Act, a registered agent has a duty to notify the department when lodging an application on behalf of a client, or within 28 days of commencing to act on behalf of a visa applicant. This notification can be done by completing, and your agent signing, the relevant sections of this application form.

About the information you give in this form

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided² will be used by the department for assessing your eligibility for a visa to travel, enter and remain in Australia and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act, for example, to assist migrants with settling in Australia, to monitor the conduct of migration agents, or for ensuring compliance with the Migration Act.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, review of decisions and regulation of migration agents.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to Federal, State and Territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (by cancellation for breach of visa condition for example) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

If your application for a Tourist visa has also been supported by an Australian Member of Parliament or a Community Leader based in Australia, information on the outcome of your application and of your compliance with visa conditions, if your visa is granted, may be provided to the Member of Parliament or the Community Leader.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the department's offices, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed.

The department has authority under the Migration Act 1958 to collect a range of personal identifiers from non-citizens, including visa applicants, in certain circumstances. For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 also relates to your personal information. Under this Act you can apply for access to documents containing your personal information. You or someone authorised to access information on your behalf can apply to do this at any of the department's offices in Australia. There is no fee for accessing your own information. If you are overseas, you must provide an address in Australia to which copies of your personal records can be sent. More information on how to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 is given on form 424A Request for access to documents.

²The information provided in relation to health on this form, and the results of any tests for Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), will be used to assess your health for an Australian visa. A positive HIV or other test result will not necessarily lead to a visa being denied. Your result may be disclosed to the relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory Health agencies.

Application checklist

With your application you must include:

- your passport
- a recent passport photograph of yourself and any children included in your passport and travelling with you
- the application charge
- if required, authorisation for children to travel with you (refer to the section of the form 'Children included' for details)
- details of how you want your passport returned (if by mail, you should include a passport sized envelope with your address and sufficient postage)

Separate this sheet and keep it for reference.

When you have lodged your application, you should attach your receipt to this sheet.

Additional documentation

Under the Migration Act 1958, decision-makers are not obliged to seek additional information from the applicant before making a decision on a visa application. It is therefore in the applicant's best interest to submit the following documentation with their application:

- evidence of funds;
- evidence of your medical/travel insurance;
- medical examination or tests;
- a letter from your employer confirming your leave;
- evidence of enrolment at school, college or university;
- if visiting close family in Australia (who is a citizen or permanent resident of Australia), a letter of invitation to visit;
- other information that you have an incentive and authority to return to your country of residence.

Understanding your visa label

If you are granted a visa, the following information is provided to assist you with understanding the terms and conditions of your visa.

- 1 The name of the office that granted your visa.
- 2 Your name, and the names of any family members included in your application.
- 3 Visa validity information, including:
 - the date your visa was granted;
 - the date by which you must enter Australia;
 - the number of times you can travel to Australia within the validity of the visa; and
 - your authorised period of stay in Australia.
- 4 The type of visa you have been granted.
- 5 The conditions attached to your visa:

8101 – NO WORK

8201 – MAX 3 MONTHS STUDY

8205 – A CHEST X-RAY IF STUDY MORE THAN 4 WEEKS

A description of these conditions is provided on page 2.

There may be another condition:

8503 – NO FURTHER STAY

If this condition is printed on your visa you will generally not be able to apply for another visa in Australia. A full description of this condition is provided on page 2.

There may be other visa conditions, depending on the purpose of your visit.

Part P – Declaration

48 Having read the 'Conditions for a tourist visa to Australia' on page 2 of this form:

- I understand that the visa I am applying for does not permit me to work or undertake business activities in Australia.
- I understand that the visa I am applying for does not permit me to study for longer than 3 months in Australia.
- My intention to visit Australia is genuine and I will abide by the conditions and period of stay of the visa.
- I have adequate funds to meet all costs associated with the visit to and from Australia for all those included in this application.
- I have truthfully declared all relevant details requested of me in this application.
- I understand that the effect of the 8503 visa condition is that it will not be possible for me to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay of my visa. I agree to having this condition included on any visa issued to me as a result of this application.
- I acknowledge that I understand that if the 8503 visa condition is imposed on my visa, it will be indicated on the visa label, or in documents given to me by the department about the grant of my visa, by the condition code '8503' and by the short description 'No Further Stay'.
- I acknowledge that this means that the 8503 condition has been imposed on my visa, that I am required to depart Australia before the end of the period of stay authorised by my visa and that I understand the restriction that condition 8503 places on me.
- In any part of this form which has been completed with the assistance of another person, I declare that the information as set down is true and correct and has been included with my full knowledge, consent and understanding.
- If granted a visa, I will advise the overseas mission should my circumstances change prior to my travel to Australia.
